

50529潘頤 50524溫珮妤

Kenting

Eluanbi Lighthouse

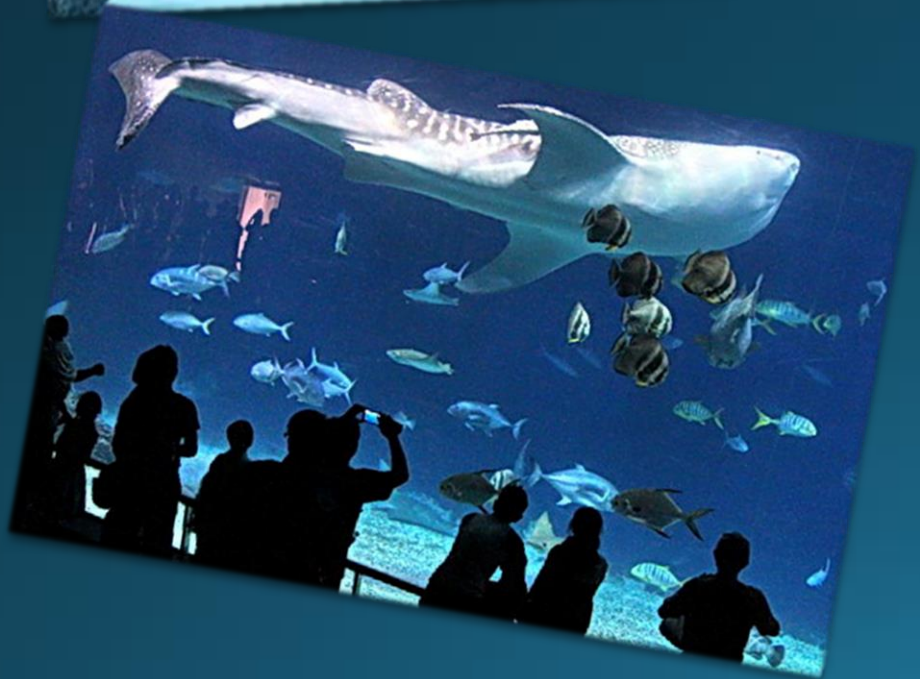

Eluanbi Lighthouse is a lighthouse located on Cape Eluanbi. It is the southernmost point of Taiwan. The lighthouse is built between the Pacific Ocean and the Taiwan Strait. The lighthouse is open to the public all year around. Today, Eluanbi Lighthouse is called "The Light of East Asia", because its intensity is the most powerful among Taiwan lighthouses.

The Kenting National Park

The Kenting National Park is a national park located in the Hengchun Peninsula of Pingtung County. The Kenting National Park is Taiwan's oldest and southernmost national park, covering the southernmost area of the Taiwan island along Bashi Channel.

National Museum of Marine Biology and Aquarium

National Museum of Marine Biology has a lot of diverse marine creatures. You can touch the starfish, sea cucumbers, sea urchins and other creatures. Museum covers the history of oceans from several hundred million years ago to today.

Shihmen Ancient Battlefield

1873, the Japanese sent troops to attack Taiwan. Indigenous inhabitants of the Mudan She struggled against the Japanese. It is known as "Peony Society event". This is the ancient battlefield Peony Society event.

Thank You for Your Listening!

